Lake Braddock High School Academic Advising

2022-2023

Learning Targets

Today you will review course offerings and graduation requirements.

So that you can select courses for the upcoming school year.

You will know you have it when you have accurately entered your courses in SIS.

Today's Session Logistics

Advisory Teachers will be assisting us today by playing this recorded session.

This recording will also be posted in the Curriculum Fair Site so you have it as a reference.

Counselors will also be stopping by classrooms to answer questions throughout today's session.

Office Hours

If you still have questions at the end of today's session, Office Hours will be held in the Career Center during the WIN Time following this presentation. You must register for this session in advance and use the confirmation email as a pass for your Advisory Teacher.

- Rising 12th Grade Office Hours Registration, January 13th
- Rising 11th Grade Office Hours Registration, January 13th
- Rising 10th Grade Office Hours Registration, January 28th

You can also check in with your counselor at the Virtual Hours session taking place during the HS Curriculum Night.

FCPS Online Campus

FCPS Online Campus offers courses in an online format and uses multi-media to engage students. These courses are identical in content to those offered in our traditional classrooms. Courses are aligned with the Virginia Standards of Learning (SOL) and follow the Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) Program of Studies.

Information

Students may take up to two online courses for reasons such as:

- the late start option,
- to resolve face to face scheduling conflicts,
- personal reasons including health, and
- others approved by counselor on the Online Campus.

Students who want take an 8th high school course will pay $680 ($340 for reduced lunch or $68 for free lunch status).

Students pursuing this option should state their intent at the time of course registration and plan closely with their school counselor.
